

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Scofield or Senator Hannibal. Senator Scofield.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Senator Withem tells me he would rather hear Senator Hannibal, so I'll just give him a couple of minutes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay. Senator Hannibal, would you like a couple of Senator Scofield's time?

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Pat, would you read the amendment, please.

CLERK: (Read Scofield-Hannibal amendment.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Hannibal.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: The motion is to suspend the rules and vote without further amendment on the bill and advance it from Select File to E & R, as I understand it. Well, the suspension comes first, or is that one vote?

CLERK: Two votes.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Two votes, okay, the suspension comes first. If you're ready to do it, we'll do it. If you're not, we'll not.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Scofield, did you want to add to it?

SENATOR SCOFIELD: I don't think I could be any more eloquent than that. I think I said it all earlier in my little handout, and that is you've either grasped the situation or you haven't. This is your chance.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator DeCamp, did you wish to...that is the end. No further comment? Oh, Senator Wesely would like to come on. Excuse me.

SENATOR WESELY: I would oppose moving at this time rapidly forward. I think we are all tired and everybody would like to get it over with. There is no sense that we have to do that. I think we did a lot of things today we'd like to reflect on. Perhaps in the morning we could see things in a
