

more efforts on the bill, and if they didn't go, regardless of what anybody said, I assume there would be more discussion. And I think that is about all it was. So I am kind of like Senator DeCamp, if there isn't a better idea, bracketing at least would save the rest of this day to be used for some of the bills on Select File.

PRESIDENT: Senator Haberman, do you wish to speak on the bracketing motion?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President and members of the body, although nobody is listening, I might as well take my time. I have no choice but to support the bracket. I am going again refer to the gentlemen's senatorial agreement we had yesterday to adopt the budget and move it. And Senator Abboud, Senator Barrett, Senator Beutler, Senator Beyer, Senator Chronister, Conway, Goll, Goodrich, Haberman, Hannibal, Hefner, Higgins, Hoagland, Lowell Johnson, Rod Johnson, Labedz, Lamb, Lundy, Lynch, Miller, Morehead, Nelson, Nichol, Pappas, Peterson, Remmers, Rogers, Rupp, Scofield, Sieck, Smith, Warner and Withem voted yes. They voted yes last night after the gentlemen's agreement. Senator Hoagland was one of them. Now overnight we change, we want to undo everything we have done. They lost three times. Nothing has changed, except somebody didn't get their way. Somebody didn't get what they wanted and now they have changed their minds. I have lost on this floor. The vote went against me and that was it. But I didn't get three cracks. I took my one and took my licking and went home. So I would like to have three cracks after this and this will make number four. We recessed at the suggestion of some of these people who want to undo the recess. Yeah, they want to undo what they wanted to do in the first place. They dared the committee to come in with budget cuts and they did and they even voted for them last night. Now I don't understand this because usually when I say, yes, I give my word or I make an agreement or a deal or trade a vote, or whatever, my word is good. You are going to hear, well, I didn't agree to that, I just nodded my head or I wasn't over at the meeting. You hear all these things, but the understanding...there are no secrets in this body, everybody knows what goes on. Everybody knows what goes on. So I say to you, the bracket is a good motion. I don't have
