SPEAKER NICHOL: With that, ladies and gentlemen, I would suggest that we be here on time in the morning at nine o'clock. You well know we're doing a consent calendar tomorrow and we will go through the noon hour and wind up at one-thirty or two o'clock, right at one-thirty, two, depending on how we get along. So I urge you to be on time in the morning so that we can roll on those. They are your bills. All the bills that I have are passed or killed, so nothing is of personal interest to me there, but I do urge you to be there early at nine o'clock tomorrow. Senator Shirley Marsh, would you like to adjourn us until nine o'clock tomorrow morning, please.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. Speaker, I move we adjourn until nine o'clock on March 6th, and while I have the microphone I'd like to tell you all that this is our 43rd wedding anniversary and Frank sends greetings to you.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Oh, oh, thank you. Congratulations to you. You might make it now, hmm? Okay, you've heard the motion. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. We are adjourned till nine o'clock. Thank you.
