LB 603

heck.

SENATOR VICKERS: Okay. Well, I have not had a chance to really look at this but I appreciate your answers, Senator DeCamp. Thank you.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Marsh, please, and then Senator Nelson.

SENATOR MARSH: Senator DeCamp, I have a question if you would please respond.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator DeCamp, will you respond to a question, please?

SENATOR DECAMP: Yes, ma'am.

SENATOR MARSH: Why does it take until April 9th at eleven-thirty before I hear word one about this topic? I have been available. No one has said we need your amendment, to me.

SENATOR DECAMP: That is a good question.

SENATOR MARSH: How long have you had your amendment pending on LB 603?

SENATOR DECAMP: In one form or another, how long has it been there? Weeks, weeks and weeks? Pardon? Weeks. And it's been printed in the Journal. Is that right?

SENATOR MARSH: Thank you.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Nelson, please, on the DeCamp amendment.

SENATOR NELSON: Again, I am not exactly familiar with Senator DeCamp's amendment and I would just rather address the bill in itself. The fact that the central filing system was suggested and promoted by the banking industry, they have taken a reverse on that and I think that when Senator Johnson and Senator DeCamp are not as sincere, maybe DeCamp is, that they would really probably like to be for this amendment, the problem is the time lag. The actual notification, I have no qualms with it that it will work. The experience in the other states is that it has simply not been satisfactory and I think that we should learn by their experience and go along with our business today and move
