

January 27, 1987

unreasonable hour, I would like to suggest that we convene tomorrow morning at nine o'clock. We will be in a position to discuss some bills on General File. We will have a little bit of Select File, and perhaps be able to address the Revisor's bills on Final Reading. Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. The Clerk asked me to remind you that if any of you chairmen have reports that you could bring up to the Clerk's Office so that we could... Yes. He'd like to have them now, not later, but now. If you have them, he'd appreciate receiving them now. So, committee chairmen, please do this if you are able to.

CLERK: Mr. President, I do have a hearing notice from the Agriculture Committee. That is signed by Senator Rod Johnson as Chair.

Mr. President, Senator Jackie Smith would like to have a meeting of the Intergovernmental Cooperation Committee underneath the south balcony. Intergovernmental Committee, underneath the south balcony upon adjournment.

(Recorder malfunction.) ...reports from the Urban Affairs Committee. That is signed by Senator Hartnett. That is all that I have, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Emil Beyer, would you like to say something to us about adjourning until tomorrow at nine o'clock.

SENATOR BEYER: Mr. Speaker, I would move...

PRESIDENT: Senator Beyer, just a minute, before you do, may I please remind you of the Intergovernmental meeting underneath the south balcony immediately. Excuse me. Senator Beyer.

SENATOR BEYER: Mr. Speaker, I would move...

PRESIDENT: Just a minute. Senator Smith, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR SMITH: Would you allow me to just make a statement to the body?

PRESIDENT: Yes, ma'am. Personal privilege?

SENATOR SMITH: Point of personal privilege. All right, thank