the body.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I think the Legislature, like the Army, travels on its stomach and I believe stomachs are giving orders now, and the Arabs have said when the stomach is full, the head is empty, but by the same token when the stomach is empty, the head pays no attention. So, I would ask Senator Barrett, would he object to our terminating the discussion now. That would give you time to look at it and then we will take it up next time we are...

SENATOR BARRETT: I would have no objection to that, Senator Chambers. Had you not suggested that, I might have suggested we adjourn. Go ahead, that is fine.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I move that we recess until...oh, is it over? I move that we adjourn until nine o'clock Tuesday morning.

SENATOR LANDIS: Before we vote on that, let's allow the Clerk to read into the record those messages we need, and then we will proceed with the vote on the adjournment motion.

CLERK: Mr. President, your Enrolling Clerk has presented to the Governor bills read on Final Reading this morning. (Re: LBs 59, 93, 136, 167, 177, 206, 317, and 471. See page 634 of the Legislative Journal.)

Government Committee reports 626 to General File, signed by Senator Rupp. Judiciary reports 123 to General File with amendments; 43 indefinitely postponed; 222 indefinitely postponed. (See pages 634-35 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, new resolutions by Senators Vard Johnson, Chambers, Hartnett, Lynch, Landis, Marsh, Pappas, and Korshoj. (Read explanation of LR 31. See pages 634-35 of the Legislative Journal.) That will be laid over.

I have an Attorney General's Opinion to Senator Rod Johnson, (Re: LB 148. See pages 636-37 of the Legislative Journal.)

A new A bill, 101A. (Read for the first time by title. See page 641 of the Legislative Journal.)

And a new resolution by Senator Remmers. (Read explanation of LR 32. See pages 638-39 of the Legislative Journal.) That will be laid over.
