LB 60
LR 92

everybody has a great time for three or four days celebrating a centennial such as this, and I would ask that you all help me extend congratulations to this village and community. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Did you tell us where Virginia is?

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Virginia is about 14 miles east of Beatrice, as a matter of fact, and it has a couple of really popular gathering places and if any of you want a tour I'll be happy to take you on a tour some Friday or Saturday night.

PRESIDENT: Senator Hartnett, please.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Senator Morehead, how big is Virginia?

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Virginia is about 80 people.

SENATOR HARTNETT: About the same size as my home town. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. The question is the adoption of the resolution. All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted, please? Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of the resolution.

PRESIDENT: The resolution is adopted. Would you kindly take your seats, please, so that we may begin Final Reading. (Gavel.) Would you please return to your seats so that we can begin Final Reading, please. Thank you. If you would return to your desks, please, we would begin Final Reading. I ask your cooperation, please. If you'd return to your desk, we'd be getting started, please. Mr. Clerk, LB 60, please.

CLERK: Mr. President, the first item on 60, Senator Johnson had amendments printed. I understand he wanted to withdraw those.

PRESIDENT: All right, read LB 60, please.

CLERK: (Read LB 60 on Final Reading.)

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 60 pass? All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record,
