

man, George Washington, you all ought to check how many illegitimate babies those people produced on their slaves. Don't do it that way.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Time. Senator Coordsen, would you care to discuss the bracketing motion? Thank you. Senator Haberman, any comments? Senator Haberman. Senator Hall, any comments on the...

SENATOR HALL: Yeah, Mr. President, members, I rise to oppose the bracket motion. I am currently in the right frame of mind. I agree with Senator Chambers that probably even if he would like to have me a little frazzled and a little on end, he has got me there. I won't give him credit for doing that. I think I have reached that point all by myself and I think that some of the stuff that we are dealing with that is on the agenda that is going to be coming up, including especially the budget, we probably need to be on edge a little bit when we deal with it, and that is not bad. And besides that, I really don't want to go back to work and I would just as soon stay here. The pay is much better but I think that we would be making a mistake. I understand Senator Rupp's intention and what he is trying to do here. I think that today alone we have 9 people that are gone, and a group of those are in Washington but that probably can't be helped, but it has been difficult. I was one of the individuals who was gone yesterday afternoon but I make no apologies for that. I am usually pretty regularly in my seat but I think that we belong here. We need to finish our job and I would like to see us do it by the 29th of May, so I would oppose the bracket motion.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Senator Vard Johnson.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: I will call the question.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Five hands please? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? Those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record.

CLERK: 31 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Debate is ceased. Before recognizing Senator Rupp for closing, I would like to announce that Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Windshorst of Davenport, Nebraska, the brother-in-law of Senator Coordsen, under the south balcony. Would you people please stand and be recognized. Also Senator Dierks has 24
