you have something to speak to us about? But before you do, I have one other guest to introduce. Senator Coordsen has Mr. and Mrs. Duane Albers of Davenport and Iva Hickman of Casa Grande, Arizona. Would you folks please rise and be welcomed. Thank you. Speaker Barrett.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you, Mr. President and members. It is my understanding that a very big event of last evening has not been announced officially to the public, and that is specifically the score of last night's softball game. Final score, final score, legislators 9, Pages 8. (Applause.) Secondly, those who are attending the SAC briefing this evening, buses will be leaving from the west entrance 15 minutes following the conclusion of our work this afternoon, 15 minutes following for the briefing at the Strategic Air Command Center. It is my plan to work tomorrow through the noon hour. It...I'm sorry, Senator Pappas, that's the way it is. You win some and you lose some. It is my hope that we can adjourn a bit early for the long, long weekend. Also, I would hope that the members can stay for just a few minutes now previous to our adjournment to witness a ceremony which will take place in our Legislative Chamber, momentarily, and to welcome our new colleague. With that, Mr. President, I would suggest that we adjourn.

PRESIDENT: First of all, we'd like to have a couple of things done here. Mr. Clerk, do you have something to put in?

CLERK: Mr. President, your Committee on Enrollment and Review respectfully reports 270 and 270A correctly engrossed. (See page 2277 of the Legislative Journal.)

Senator Schmit has amendments to 390; Senator Wesely to 390; Senator Pappas and Elmer to 130. (See pages 2277-79 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, I have study resolutions. (Read introduction of LR 210-219.) Those will be referred to the Executive Board, Mr. President. (See pages 2279-85 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: While we're waiting, Senator Ashford, do you wish to...?

SENATOR ASHFORD: Thank you, Mr. President. Briefly, for those of you who are not going to SAC this evening, I passed around tickets and a brochure for a concert tonight that is being sponsored by a foundation of which I am a director of. Li Jian,
