

habits, I do not know, but this one is for Lushton, Nebraska, named after Mr. Lush.

PRESIDENT: The question is the adoption of resolution 195. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Ladies and gentlemen, may I have your attention, please. We need a little help on this resolution by Senator Scott Moore. We would appreciate your vote if you would care to vote on it. Senator Moore, would you like to vote on your own resolution? Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of 195.

PRESIDENT: LR 195 is adopted. LR 202, please.

CLERK: Mr. President, 202 by Senator Dierks. (Read explanation. See page 2268 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Senator Dierks, please.

SENATOR DIERKS: Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Legislature. I am pleased to offer this resolution honoring Loretto, founded in 1887. Loretto is a small community in Boone County, right north or south of Petersburg, and Loretto will be celebrating its centennial on the 10th and 11th of July. Loretto had the bad luck of falling off of the state road map but some way or another was put back on a year ago and I think they are very happy about that. I wish you would congratulate Loretto with me. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. The question is the adoption of LR 202. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays on adoption of LR 202, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: LR 202 is adopted. LR 203, please.

CLERK: LR 203, Mr. President, by Senator Dierks. (Read explanation. See pages 2268-69 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Senator Dierks, please.

SENATOR DIERKS: Thank you. Mr. President and members of the Legislature, again, I am pleased to present another resolution honoring Petersburg, this time. Petersburg is a very proud community in the County of Boone. They will be celebrating
