

May 18, 1987

LB 787

money that was refunded back to the state through the Exxon overcharge dollars. And this is a pool of money which was used to award for demonstration energy projects funding. This does not cost the taxpayers of the state anything at this point. It's money that's come back to the state to be then...what do I want to say, redistributed through energy projects and this one ranked ninth out of a 104 projects that were submitted.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Thank you, Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH: Thank you.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Any other discussion? Any closing comments, Senator Smith?

SENATOR SMITH: Vote.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. The question is the adoption of the Smith amendment. Those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Voting on the Smith amendment to 787. Have you all voted? Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH: I would like to have a call of the house.

SPEAKER BARRETT: A call of the house has been requested. Those in favor of going under call, please vote aye, opposed nay. Record.

CLERK: 11 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The house is under call. Members will please return to their seats and record your presence, please. Those outside the Chamber, please return and check in. Senators Labeledz, Schmit, Chambers, please report your presence. Senator Nelson. Senators Conway, Dierks, Elmer. Senator Goodrich, please. Senator Langford. Senators Lynch and McFarland, the house is under call. Senator Peterson, please return to the Chamber. Senator Weihing, the house is under call. Senator Scofield, please record your presence. Senators Lynch, McFarland and Weihing. Senator Smith, are you authorizing call in votes, or...call in votes are authorized on the Smith amendment.

CLERK: Senator Rod Johnson voting yes. Senator Landis voting yes. Senator Schellpeper voting no. Senator Withem voting no. Senator Baack voting no. Senator Goodrich voting no. Senator