

more combative and I'd go to a dance in those little towns of Bruno or Abie and made the unwise decision to dance with somebody else's girl friend and they decided to debate the issue with their fists.

SPEAKER BARRETT: One minute.

SENATOR SCHMIT: There weren't any rules, and that's exactly what we've got here, ladies and gentlemen, no rules, no rules. And you're trying to draw some parameters, but you can't do it, Senator. You can't do it. Mr. President, I move for the reconsideration.

SPEAKER BARRETT: You've heard the closing and the question is the reconsideration to return the bill to Select File. Those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record.

CLERK: 5 ayes, 20 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to reconsider.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Motion fails.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next motion I have is by Senator Chambers. Senator, I understand you would like to technically withdraw the motion and substitute?

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Chambers, please.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman, I'm going to take a deep breath and ask for unanimous consent to withdraw the next motion that I have up there and substitute for it the one that I've handed on your desk, the top of which says "Capital Gains Removal".

SPEAKER BARRETT: If there are no objections, so ordered. Are you objecting to the procedure, Senator Schmit?

SENATOR SCHMIT: I'm asking at this point if I object, if that makes any difference, I guess. Do I have a right to object for the substitution of a motion?

SPEAKER BARRETT: Yes, of course. Uh-huh.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Uh-huh. Well, I think that, in view of the fact that Senator Chambers is being so gracious, I will not object and I will allow him to get to his capital gains
