

parochial school, every private school in this state, you want to talk about property taxes? You haven't seen property taxes if that were to happen, and you have got a half dozen little bingo games out there that help with that, or they help kids spend their time during the summer so they are not running the streets, so they are playing in the Little League. But yet we are going to say that that is not good and that it is okay to lower the parimutuel tax because we can keep track of that one race track. We can keep track of that but we can't keep track of those half dozen little bingo games, which, by the way, do all kinds of things that I would consider good, good for the state, good for the city, good for society, and outside of entertainment, I don't know what good the race tracks do. I am not advocating doing away with them but I am sure not saying that we ought to treat them all that much better than we do these nonprofit organizations, that make our job easier down here, ladies and gentlemen. And with that I support Senator Johnson's motion to bracket his own bill.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Pappas.

SENATOR PAPPAS: Question.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Question has been called. The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. Those in favor of ceasing debate please vote aye. Shall debate cease? The magic hour set for the conclusion of this discussion, twelve-ten. Record, please.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 3 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Debate cease. Senator Johnson.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Mr. Speaker, I am going to withdraw the bracket motion. It is gone. Senator Nelson has got a motion to reconsider. I guess that is a priority motion. I will let her go with that, so I withdraw the bracket motion. Senator Hall concurs.

SPEAKER BARRETT: It is withdrawn. Anything for the record, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Yes, Mr. President, I do. I have amendments from Senator Pappas to 582 to be printed; Senator Lamb has amendments to 279; and Mr. President, your Committee on Enrollment and Review respectfully reports they have carefully
