SENATOR WESELY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do recommend for your consideration the appointment of Dale Johnson as DPI Director. We did have a hearing, I think it was yesterday or the day before. You are all familiar with Dale. He has done a fine job over at DPI. Very pleased he has been reappointed to that position by Governor Orr and would ask for your confirmation of his appointment.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Discussion? If not, those in favor of the adoption of the report please say aye, opposed nay. Voting on the report offered by the Health and Human Services Committee. Have you all voted? Please record.

CLERK: 33 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the report.

SPEAKER BARRETT. The report is adopted. Anything for the record?

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a report from the Appropriations Committee regarding the line item vetoes on LB 781.

Mr. President, a reminder that the Standing Committee Chairs will meet tomorrow morning with the Speaker in Room 2102 at eight o'clock, Standing Committee Chairs, Room 2102 at eight o'clock.

And the last item, Mr. President, Senator Rupp would like me to announce that the bus leaving for the Platte River Park tonight will leave at four-thirty. And those driving should turn right inside the gate and proceed to meet at the Headquarters Building at approximately five-fifteen. The bus leaves at four-thirty for the park tonight.

And the last item, Mr. President, I have a... your Enrolling Clerk has presented to the Governor the last few bills read on Final Reading this afternoon. (Re: LBs 462, 462A, 474, 635, 638, 638A, 642, 652.)

That's all that I have, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you, sir. A reminder that the 90th day, tomorrow, we will convene at nine o'clock. There will be a substantial number of bills on Final Reading. We will address the veto overrides also tomorrow and the closing ceremonies,
