

Abboud's concerns by passing this bill. If the Attorney General thinks it's wrong, let him challenge it in court as he did our expenses proposition where we won. He said that the telephone deregulation bill was unconstitutional and thus far he has been found wrong by the courts.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So we're all dealing an opinion, but I think our opinion on this one is correct.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Schmit, further discussion. Senator Schmit, any further discussion? Followed by Senators Vard Johnson, Hall and Abboud.

SENATOR SCHMIT: I'll call the question, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The question has been called. Five hands I do see. Those in favor of ceasing debate please vote aye, opposed nay. Please record.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Debate ceases. Senator Abboud, for closing. I'm sorry, Senator Withem.

SENATOR WITHEM: Again, as I indicated in my opening, that was to allow those individuals, who hadn't had an opportunity to speak before, to speak. I'm withdrawing the motion.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. It is withdrawn. Next item, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Abboud would move to return LB 223 (sic) to the Revenue Committee.

SENATOR ABOUD: Mr. President and colleagues, I don't mind discussing an issue when we're discussing an issue, but let's face facts here. This amendment, whether the Attorney General, whether you agree with him or not, it's a legitimate issue. Now, Senator Chambers, I don't normally respond to your charges. Quite frankly, I don't, most of the time, pay much attention to them, but...I don't, I don't. But I truly believe, Senator Chambers, that our responsibility here is to pass constitutional legislation. Our responsibility is not to go out there and when we see an individual speeding on the highway, pull that
