SPEAKER BARRETT: I move we adjourn until nine o'clock, officially, Thursday morning.

PRESIDENT: All right, you have heard the motion. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. Senator Rod Johnson, your light came on.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Mr. President, before we adjourn, may I take a point of personal privilege?

PRESIDENT: Yes, sir, state your point.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Mr. President, this evening the Agriculture Committee will be meeting at seven o'clock to hear from United States Senator David Karnes on his trips to Geneva relative to the GATT Conference and the results of that GATT Conference relative to United States agricultural exports. For those senators that wish to attend, we will be meeting in Room 1520 and we will be concluded with our work by seven-thirty so that those that wish to attend the Ag Council dinner following that hearing can do so. So I know that there has been some concern registered to me relative to getting to the Ag Council dinner following our hearing but the hearing should be relatively brief and I have told Senator Karnes to make his comments concise so that those of you wishing to attend can do so.

PRESIDENT: Did you state the time of that?

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Yes, sir, the hearing begins at seven o'clock in Room 1520.

PRESIDENT: All right, thank you. Thank you.
