SENATOR MOORE: ...in your convenience stores and your gas stations, your grocery stores, your barbershops, your beauty shops, I think you are going to continue to have problems with the general public that is continuing to have to see this gambling in the form of pickle cards going on. I think if you can keep them in the on-sale liquor license, and if you can keep them...what my amendment will do will allow them to be sold only in a package liquor store, and my amendment should have been passed out. What it is, is it says that a package liquor store will be able to sell pickle cards if at least 75 percent of their business comes from the sale of alcohol, and the burden of proof for how much of their business is derived from alcohol is on that liquor store, and so they will be the ones who will have to go to the Revenue Department for now until, eventually, I guess the Gaming Commission, if we pass that amendment, the package liquor store will have to come forth and prove...

PRESIDENT: Time.

SENATOR MOORE: ...that 75 percent of their business comes from alcohol. I would urge you to defeat the Johanns amendment. If you want to broaden the pickle card sales, adopt my amendment which will be soon following.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Morehead has guests in the north balcony. We have 13 seniors from Adams High School with their teachers. Would you folks please stand and be recognized. Thank you for visiting us today. We have an amendment, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Conway would move to amend the Johanns amendment.

PRESIDENT: Senator Conway, please.

SENATOR CONWAY: Mr. President and members, I think that, as Senator Moore pointed out, this whole debate really got started dealing with the extent to which we had pickle parlors and some people in society's concern for that, including our Governor's, and the thing really, in my mind, has gotten out of hand. As Senator Moore points out that the extent to which people don't like beauty shops and other people selling these pickle tickets, I think you would find very quickly in our somewhat free market environment that if people don't like a beauty shop because they
