

April 9, 1990

our great state and to life and liberty. And, finally, it is fitting that I conclude by offering, on behalf of all Nebraskans, my heartfelt thanks to the Lieutenant Governor, my partner Bill. Bill, you have been a valuable member of this legislative and executive branch and you have every reason to be proud of the over 30 years of service that you have given to the people of the State of Nebraska. So I would ask all of you to join me one more time in acknowledging the contribution that Bill Nichol has made on behalf of all of us. (Applause.) Bill, may God bless you in your future endeavors, and, to all of you, God speed on your journey home. Thank you. (Applause.)

PRESIDENT: I have been asked to announce that a presentation will be made at the National Arbor Day Foundation when they will plant a Scotch pine at the National Arbor Day Center in Nebraska City as a gift to Governor Orr from the Ninety-First Legislative Second Session. And there will be a plaque on the tree which will read as follows. "Presented to Governor Kay A. Orr from the Ninety-First Legislature, Second Session, April 9, 1990." Thank you. Senator Korshoj, you have a motion, please.

SENATOR KORSHOJ: Mr. President and members, I move that all bills not otherwise disposed of, excluding bills on Final Reading and vetoed or line-item vetoed bills on this date be indefinitely postponed. Further, that the Chairpersons of all Standing Committees file with the Clerk of the Legislature all Standing Committee records so that a proper record may be made of the final disposition of all bills. I kill them all. (Applause.)

PRESIDENT: You have heard the motion. Anyone in favor say aye. Opposed nay. Opposed nay. It is carried. Senator Rod Johnson, please.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Mr. President, I move that the Legislature approve the preparation and printing of the permanent Legislative Journal, Session Laws and Indexes by Patrick J. O'Donnell, and that he be directed to send each of the members of this Legislature a copy of the loose-leaf session laws and permanent Journal and Session Laws.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. You have heard the motion. All in favor say aye. Opposed nay. Okay, thank you. Senator Hannibal, please.
