be congested for them to do that. There is seating in the north and south balconies for those of you who do not wish to stand, and I suggest that some of you perhaps or some of the other folks under the north and south balcony, please go the north and south balcony if you wish to be seated. Thank you. We appreciate your being with us and it's great to have you with the members of the Legislature for a short time at least why we might be a little uncomfortable. Ladies and gentlemen of the Legislature, I would like to have your attention for just a moment. We have a very special guest that you'll be seeing a lot of in the future. Senator Scofield, would you like to introduce your guest, please, and have him come out so that we may see him and get acquainted with him. Senator Scofield.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Thank you, Mr. President. As you know, I will be leaving you shortly and Governor-elect Nelson has already announced who his choice is and I'd like to introduce the new and improved senator from the 49th District, Bob Wickersham. Bob.

PRESIDENT NICHOL: As you know...excuse me, Sandy, were you through?

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Well, I might say this later but maybe it's appropriate to say it now, what an honor it has been to be a part of this body, how much I have enjoyed representing the 49th District and the opportunity to get to know each of you, and look forward to continuing to work with you on the other side, so to speak. So I thank each and every one of you for your personal courtesies and the good things we've been able to do together.

PRESIDENT NICHOL: Thank you. Future Senator Wickersham, we welcome you to the body in a day or so and I'm sure you'll enjoy us. I wish to tell the members of the Legislature that Mr. Wickersham comes from Harrison, Nebraska, which is in the extreme northwest corner and it's good hunting for turkeys and good fishing and a nice enjoyable place and good people. Would you like to say a word?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Thank you. I just want to say that I'm very glad that the Governor has shown confidence in me. I have attended some of the preliminary activities here. I'm greatly interested and I'm sure it's a fascinating body and I am going to be greatly honored to serve. Thank you.
