

1992 Nebraska Mother of the Year, Yvonne Dalluge of Pawnee City.
(Applause.)

YVONNE DALLUGE: Thank you very much. I would like to introduce some of my family members here. My husband is here, Duane Dalluge, and my one son, Bruce Dalluge, is over on the left, and his wife Debbie, and her mother, Colleen. And I have one other son who couldn't be here today, he is in Hong Kong, he works for Leo Daily architectural firm, and so that's a little far to travel. But this is my family that I have. I am honored to be here today as Nebraska Mother for 1992. I've often wondered how the mother was chosen and by whom, and now I know. I have written my history of my family and myself, and I have a portfolio that's almost as tall as the stacks of bills that you have for the Legislature. Little did I know, when I had my first son Bruce, that I would be honored here today. Parenting is a 100 percent effort for the first 18 years of a child's life. You only have one time to succeed. I feel that motherhood is the most important thing in our state, our nation, and our world. If we don't have children who are educated, disciplined and moral to follow us, this world will not survive. I hope to be a good representative for the State of Nebraska for 1992. Thank you. (Applause.)

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Mrs. Dalluge. We will now proceed to Item 5 on the agenda with legislative resolutions. First, we have LR 276 by Senator Schmit.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Schmit's resolution is found on page 1379 of the Legislative Journal.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Schmit.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Mr. President and members, the community of Wahoo, as you know, has, for a number of years, fielded a very excellent basketball team. The entire community has supported the team very well, and I would like to read briefly from the resolution. Whereas the Wahoo High School boys' basketball team competed in the Boys State High School Basketball Tournament; Whereas the Wahoo High School boys' basketball team had the nation's longest active winning streak with 114 consecutive victories; and Whereas Wahoo High School boys' basketball team should be congratulated for their exemplary record and for their participation in the Boys State High School Basketball Tournament; Now therefore be it resolved by the members of the
