

April 3, 1992

LB 719A, 897, 1244, 1269

SENATOR HEFNER: Okay, in regards to LB 897 and LB 1269, we did advance those two bills, didn't we?

SENATOR HALL: That is correct. They were advanced without objection, Senator Hefner.

SENATOR HEFNER: Okay, and then since we are going to divide these, the first two will be in the first one, and LB 1244 will be in the second one.

SENATOR HALL: That is correct.

SENATOR HEFNER: So I guess I'd...did we have anybody testify against LB 1244, do you recall? That increases the documentary tax.

SENATOR HALL: Right, that would be the second half of the amendment. We are now on...

SENATOR HEFNER: Okay.

SENATOR HALL: ...we are on the first half.

SENATOR HEFNER: Okay, I will talk a little later then.

SENATOR HALL: Right, okay.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Is it possible, Mr. Speaker, to divide out the second part further so that the increase in the documentary stamp tax is separated from the remainder?

SPEAKER BAACK: We are dealing with the first part right now. Let's go ahead and deal with the first part of the amendment right now. Is there any discussion on the first part of the amendment? Seeing none, Senator Hall, did you wish to close on that portion?

SENATOR HALL: Just that these are...thank you, Mr. Speaker, members. Just that these are two bills that, like I said, they were advanced out without objection, and they are technical changes, at least in the cabin trailer provision. The proposal that Senator Warner and I discussed with regard that we did