

May 19, 1993

LB 50, 98A, 310, 345A, 564, 835, 840A
LR 201-230

provisions of that order allowing them to use the interlock, we can just extend this amendment very easily, once it's adopted, and apply it to them too. Then because we know how many young people are going to be involved, we can do here like they used to hang people and burn them at the stake. Sometimes you have multi, multiple burnings. They called it the alto dufay, the act of faith, when you burr them. And when you had a lot of them or you had to burn in a kind of area that includes more than one city, then...

SENATOR HALL: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...it's regional, you do a lot of them at the same time. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Senator Chambers. You've heard the closing on the Chambers amendment to LB 564. The question is, shall the amendment be adopted? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Record vote.

SENATOR HALL: Senator Chambers has requested a record vote.

CLERK: (Read record vote. See pages 2296-97 of the Legislative Journal.) 2 ayes, 15 nays, Mr. President.

SENATOR HALL: The amendment is not adopted. Items for the record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Schimek has amendments to LB 50, Senator Wehrbein to LB 835, Senator Will to LB 310. (See pages 2297-98 of the Legislative Journal.) Confirmation hearing notices from Revenue and General Affairs. New A bills, Senator Withem to LB 98A; LB 345A by Senator Warner; Senator Moore to LB 840A. (Read brief descriptions.) Study resolutions, LR 201-230 at this time. (See pages 2298-2317 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Before we proceed further with the bill, I'd like to make an announcement that Senators Day and Chambers have a special guest under the south balcony, former Senator Frank Korshoj is here today. Frank, would you please rise and be welcomed by the Legislature. We're going to have a call of the house just for you, Frank. Mr. Clerk.