are retired is ridiculous, and among some of those who are retired are those who participated in what they wanted to call a mock hanging that happened to a young black man with the Nebraska National Guard, and had I not gotten involved and stayed involved for months they would be still going down south to be training. They, and some Mississippi guardsmen, put a noose around this young black man, tied it to the back of a jeep and lifted him off the ground. Then they said it was a joke, and that's the way it was to be portrayed. I wound up getting the Governor of this state and the Governor of the state...

SENATOR HALL: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...of Mississippi involved. And people didn't think it could go that far. It traumatized the young man to such an extent that he wound up shooting himself. He didn't die but he wound up in a coma. He may be dead now. And there are other things that the National Guard has done. They had their so-called Rooster Roster Club where they committed sexual exploits and they got that as a reward. Those are the things that the National Guard ought to be exposed for, and this bill is not going to advance today and if it comes up at another time, I'm going to move to kill it dead as a door nail or deader.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Witek, your light is next. The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor of ceasing debate vote aye, opposed nay. We're voting on ceasing debate. Have you all voted? Senator Witek.

SENATOR WITEK: Call of the house, call-in votes accepted.

SENATOR HALL: The question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor of the house going under call vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 17 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SENATOR HALL: The house is under call. All members please return to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. There's been a request for a roll call vote on the question of ceasing debate. All members who are outside the Chamber, please return to the Chamber and record your presence, the house is under call. Senators Ashford, Avery and Beutler.
