the expenditure. By taking these people who are not law enforcement persons and assigning them to do the work of a law enforcement person, they say will free up these troopers who ordinarily would do that law enforcement work to do something else. So they want to create quasi state troopers. I think it is a bad policy, but since it looks like something along that line might be done, Senator Haberman's amendment...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Pass.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...which will restrict is something that I would like to see done.

SPEAKER WITHEM: I have no idea why I used the word "pass", time is what I meant to say. There is one other light on. That individual has already spoken three times so will not be recognized to speak. Senator Haberman, you are recognized to close on your amendment. There are no other lights on.

SENATOR HABERMAN: May I have a call of the house, please.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The question is, shall the house come under call? All in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 15 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Members, the house is under call. Return to the Chamber, record your presence, unauthorized personnel please leave the floor.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, members of the body, in 1954, which was 31 (sic) years ago, the weight and scale people were given to the Roads Department, 31 years ago. So they operated 31 years without firearms. Now nine years after they've been transferred, they want guns. This doesn't seem right. We've offered a compromise, no one wants to compromise. So I guess it's kind of hard for me to understand just exactly what people want. Well, maybe it's easier to understand if I stop and think that they don't have any grain trucks in their districts, they don't have any grain trucks in the city, they don't know what it is like to be stopped by a weight and scale person. They don't know what it is like to be intimidated by that uniform. They don't know what it's like about having those sirens going, those lights flashing and be pulled over, be embarrassed. They don't
