

February 15, 1994 LB 28

bit, say, come one in, have a cup of coffee, let's tell some stories and, by the way, hold it, stay right here, because I'm going to call for another trooper that's maybe 50 miles away in our part of the state and wait for him to come so he can arrest. And that's not a way to run a law enforcement policy on arrests. Al! we're saying is that people have had the same training in the course of their duties. If they run across something, that they need to arrest someone to get him off the street, to give him the power to do that.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Time. You've heard the closing. The question is now, shall LB 28 be advanced to E & R engrossing? Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: I'd like to have a call of the house, please, and a roll call vote.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Okay, the question is, shall the house go under call? All in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 23 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The house is under call. Unauthorized people leave the floor, absent members please return to the Chamber and record your presence. As we're waiting, if we could, let me recognize some guests of the Legislature. Under the south balcony, guests of Senator Lindsay, we have Laura Corrigan and Mike McGuire. Would you please stand and be recognized. In the south balcony, we have Joe Higgins and 82 eleventh and twelfth graders from Westside High School. We have from, under the south balcony, guests of Dan Lynch, we have Dan's son, Dan Lynch, Terry Milina and Linda Burbridge. And, from the Government Liaison Committee at UNL, the legislative shadow of Senator Pirsch, Heidi Karr. With that, we're still looking for absent members. If those who have not checked in would please do so. Senator Haberman, Senator Cudaback, Senator Momen and Senator Preister. All members not excused are here. Proceed with the roll call vote.

CLERK: (Read roll call vote. See page 735 of the Legislative Journal.) 29 ayes, 8 nays, Mr. President, on the advancement.

SPEAKER WITHEM: LB 28 advances. Next item, Mr. Clerk. Yes, if you have some messages you'd like to read in, please do so.
