SENATOR HALL: ...proposal will go forward one way or another.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Hall. Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Hall, how did I know that it was not going to be divided? I didn't know that. You just got through saying that I knew it. How did I know that?

SENATOR HALL: A question?

SENATOR HABERMAN: No, I'm saying, how did I know that? I didn't know that it was not going to be divided because the motion was up there. Then you say, why did I wait. Senator Hall, did I discuss with you the MacBride Principles two or three times before this? Yes.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL: Madam President and members, Senator Haberman, if you would listen to what I say,...

SENATOR HABERMAN: Did I discuss with you the MacBride Principles two or three times before?

SENATOR HALL: I said...I said, in an earlier discussion with you, I said that we discussed it at least two or three times. So the answer to your question is yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Thank you. Now the idea that I am in the wrong...

SENATOR HALL: Remember that...

SENATOR HABERMAN: ...now just a minute, you answered my question. Thank you, Senator Hall. All of the blame is mine. I have broad shoulders, Senator Hall. I have broad shoulders. I'll take the blame if you want to lay it to me. Lay the blame on me. But I was told out in that hall by you, in person, the divide the question issue will be debated, it will go on for a while, and then I'll withdraw my amendment, don't rock the boat. So I didn't ask the germane question. That is not...and I don't swear. Go ahead, what are you saying, Senator Hall? Well, that's a terrible thing to say. That's a terrible thing to say. You...you deny meeting me out there talking to me, you deny talking to me in the hall? Did I talk to you and you talked to
