SUNNY WELCH: I feel very humble. There must be thousands of other Nebraska mothers just as deserving of this honor, if not more so. And I'll have to straighten it out, my husband paid for all that, I just kept the clothes clean. We've really...we've been blessed with eleven healthy children and I've loved being a mother, but the best part is being a grandmother. That role is wonderful. You can love them and send them home, and we've got 22 of those darlings. So I'll try to do my best to be a great representative of motherhood and grandmotherhood and I'll try to show everybody what a good life we have in Nebraska. Thank you. (Applause.)

SENATOR CROSBY: Good morning. It's a real pleasure for me this morning to introduce the Mother of Young Children, as designated by the Nebraska Mothers Association for 1994. She is a constituent, of course, in District 29. And I have one little thing up in my kitchen that says, a mother holds her children's hands for a little while, their hearts forever. And I think that is what we think about all of our mothers, how we feel about them. And Lori Eversoll is such an exemplification of what we want in a young mother, her devotion to her children and her family and her devotion to families in general and in helping people and working in workshops and so on to help everyone...all the other families function as well as hers does. So it's just a real privilege and pleasure to introduce to you this morning this lovely, beautiful young woman, Lori Eversoll. Lori. (Applause.)

LORI EVERSOLL: Thank you, Senator Crosby. I want to thank all of you for making time this morning and taking time to recognize the importance of American Mothers Incorporated and the mothers who have been chosen to represent the State of Nebraska. I appreciate the efforts that you all make legislatively for families in this glorious state to ensure our safety, our happiness and our prosperity. Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you all to the Mothers of the Year and thank you for sharing your time and being with us here today. (Applause.) Mr. Clerk, are there any corrections to the Journal?

CLERK: Madam President, one correction. On page 1818, line 18, strike the word "offered" in the following amendment and insert "renewed her pending amendment". That's all that I have, Madam
