does lead us to some confusion, if you are going to read it for consistency sake. I don't see Senator Coordsen here at the moment, and if he was here I was going to ask him a final question. But I, in closing, Madam President, would hope that the members would see fit to allow for the Final Reading of this bill at this point in time. It is not that extreme of a motion, one that we've certainly done on a number of other occasions, will allow us to read the bill today, would merely suspend our rule of asking for a one day layover. It would not violate the constitution because the constitution talks about bills having to lay over and not allowing resolutions. So I believe that we are certainly within our rights in the constitution, and this would be a proper motion at this point in time. Madam President, that would constitute my closing. What I would ask, since we are under Final Reading, I know that there are a number of members who are at a signing ceremony who probably are technically in violation of our rules by not being present, and I would ask that we all check in at this point in time before the vote is taken. I would also ask that we have a roll call vote to do so, and the Sergeant of Arms be dispatched to bring back our delinquent members at this point in time.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Kristensen. Will all senators please return to their seats and check in. We are on Final Reading. Will all senators please return to their seats and check in. While senators are checking in, Senator Dierks wishes to announce that there are 30 fifth graders from Creighton Community School in Creighton, Nebraska, and their teacher. Would you all stand and be recognized please. Senator Matzke wishes to announce that John and Patricia Perry are here. They're parents of Bryan Perry, who is a Page, and they are from Kimball, Nebraska and they are under the south balcony. Will you stand to be recognized please. Senator Abboud, Senator Ashford, and Senator Avery. Senator Bernard-Stevens, Senator Lindsay, Senator Bohlke, Senator Byars, Senator Pirsch, Senator Coordsen, Senator Rasmussen, Senator Robak. Senator Schellpeper, Senator Wesely, Senator Withem, Senator Jones. While the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business, I propose to sign and do hereby sign LB 872, LB 1088, LB 1243, LB 903, and LB 903A.
