

January 4, 1995

Room 2022 now for purposes of designating members to the Appropriations Committee. I understand the third caucus wishes to meet, Senator, is that right, and perhaps in the back of the room underneath the north balcony, third caucus will meet there. The Executive Board will meet in Room 2022 now.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The body stands at ease until the report of the Executive Board.

EASE

SENATOR CROSBY PRESIDING

SENATOR CROSBY: Will the body please come back to the Chamber and come to order. Mr. Clerk, do you have the report from the Executive Board?

CLERK: Madam President, I do. The Executive Board has adopted a report suggesting the membership of the Appropriations Committee as follows: from the first district Senators Wehrbein, Maurstad, and Crosby; from the second district Senators Brown, Brashear, and Lynch; and from the third district Senators Schrock, Engel, and Hillman.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Mr. Clerk, do you have any messages, reports or announcements for us?

CLERK: Madam President, I have nothing further at this time. I do have something, I'm sorry. Senator Crosby, as Chair of Committee on Committees, at three forty-five the Committee on Committees will meet at three forty-five. Committee on Committees at three forty-five in Room 1520. Room 1520, three forty-five for Committee on Committees. That's all that I have, Madam President.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you. Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Yes, Madam President, members, as I indicated before, we have two options, and it's indifferent to me. I'll let the body decide. And I'd suggest we use the board for a straw poll. If you'd like to come back at 10:00 a.m., tomorrow morning, and introduce bills from ten until noon, then break for lunch, come back for the inaugural ceremonies, vote green, that's in essence what you have on the agenda, the motion that was preprinted on the agenda. If you prefer to wait until noon,
