

to ask him a question. Senator Dierks, you mentioned the peaceniks and you had said without saying who they are, what interest of the "warniks" are we trying to protect by this particular piece of legislation?

SENATOR HALL: Senator Dierks.

SENATOR DIERKS: Who are the "warniks", Senator Chambers?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Without saying.

SENATOR DIERKS: Oh.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: They're the same undifferentiated ones that you wouldn't differentiate when you used the term peaceniks.

SENATOR DIERKS: Well I'm not sure if I can define peacenik or "warnik", but I think what we're trying to do is to provide for some protections for property rights.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Which ones now and how would this do it?

SENATOR DIERKS: For those people who would be subject to government regulations and would be forced to do something that they don't like to do or not allowed to do something that they want to do.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What would the taking be? What would constitute the taking? Are you talking about what citizens would do encroaching on somebody's land...

SENATOR DIERKS: Okay, let's...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...or the state?

SENATOR DIERKS: Okay, let's talk about what has happened up on the Niobrara River as it comes into the Missouri River. It has been declared a national scenic river.

SENATOR HALL: One minute.

SENATOR DIERKS: And I'm not sure if I have the terminology right but it's either that or there's another term that goes along with that.
