

Senator.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENSON: Fight, but after the absentee ballot comes in, is the information given out at any point as to who has voted and who has not? So you are reflecting the same type of law that we had prior to this.

SENATOR CUDABACK: (Not at mine) Same...same law this would be.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENSON: Okay, I appreciate that, Senator Cudaback. I am going to think about this awhile, and maybe there will be some other discussion, but I appreciate the explanation that you gave.

SENATOR COORDSEN PRESIDING

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Senator Bernard-Stevens. Before we proceed, I would like to announce that Senator Robinson has guests under the south balcony, Mr. Mick Mines, Mayor of Blair, and Jim Taylor from Blair. Would you rise and let us show our appreciation to you for being with us this morning. Thank you. Next speaker, Senator Chambers. Sorry about that, I wasn't aware that several had passed over. Senator Schimek. Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I think I will pass now.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Senator Abboud. Senator Abboud passes. Senator Bohlke. Senator Bohlke. Senator Withem.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Yes, I'd like to ask Senator Cudaback a question or two, if I could, to get the import of this.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Senator Cudaback, would you respond.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Yes.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Cudaback, I heard the explanation. As I understand, the intent of this is under certain conditions the...this information of who has voted and who has not voted will no longer be public information, is that correct?

SENATOR CUDABACK: On our...on the mail-in ballot, right, it would not be public information. But you can still get the
