levels. I mean we...what we did with the modular units, what we're doing with community corrections, what we might do with the work camps, those are all things that can deal with the minimum security inmates, but we have a significant number that are medium to maximum security, and certainly I've talked a lot about my commitment to the segregation space, but I just think that we do have a current situation and that we must deal with, and that's what we're talking about this morning. What we did with the Chambers, Maurstad amendments had to do with future constructions and I think that we do need to figure out what we are willing to do, what we are willing to do in this body to look at the incarceration rates for the future. But we have to look at the security situation for...both for the people who are inmates and the people who work in the facility, the situation that we currently have, and I think the only responsible thing that we can do is construct the facility that we have proposed before us. And I would yield the rest of my time to Senator Hillman. Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Hillman,...

SENATOR HILLMAN: Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: ...there are two and a half minutes remaining.

SENATOR HILLMAN: Thank you, Senator Brown. Senator Pedersen, probably the concern I have over your amendment is, the way I understand it, it would probably save somewhere or it would reduce, I would say instead of save, reduce the amount of funding for ancillary services by about $2 million. Is that correct, if he's here?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Pedersen.

SENATOR DW. PEDERSEN: Yes, Senator Hillman.

SENATOR HILLMAN: Okay. That's...

SENATOR DW. PEDERSEN: But I do need to correct one thing because Senator Schimek just corrected me and I don't mean to give the body any misinformation. By accepting the Chambers amendment earlier this morning it did limit their expansion of
