Transcriber's Office

April 7, 1998 LB 1175

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Corporal punishment...oh, I'll put my light on.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time is up, Senator, but you may continue. Your light is next.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Madam President. Physical restraint is not discipline nor is it punishment but it is to maintain order. So pain and physical discomfort can be inflicted in order to maintain order, isn't that correct? It is only prohibited as a disciplinary measure, but if it is to maintain order, then you can do it, can't you?

SENATOR KIEL: Well, I guess to go back to my definition of disciplinary...or excuse me, maintaining order, I guess it depends upon your definition of discipline. I'd differentiate between corporal punishment and discipline.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If it's necessary to smack a kid to maintain order, that's placing hands on...okay.

SENATOR KIEL: And I don't regard that as reasonable and necessary so...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, thank you, Senator Kiel. Members of the Legislature, I am going to oppose this amendment, and I am also looking at LB 1175 and the latest amended version of that, I think, is AM7236. And that has 101 pages and I guess a multitude of amendments, but I really don't know what all of them are, and to put this amendment on...let me ask Senator Kiel a question. I may be getting ahead of myself.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Kiel.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Kiel.

SENATOR KIEL: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Did this provision have a hearing? Was it a bill?
