

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

February 9, 1999

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes, they did.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Did each provide the committee with a pile of miscellaneous papers which probably no member of the committee reviewed?

SENATOR JENSEN: We did have, yes, a resume' of each individual before us.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And the committee unanimously advanced these names?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes, that's true.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Have you ever been on a committee, since you've been in the Legislature, which did not advance the name of anybody who was nominated by the Governor, whoever that governor happened to be, for any position, whatever that position happened to be?

SENATOR JENSEN: No. There were some that we discussed long and hard before they were advanced.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But this activity is usually pretty perfunct and routine, correct?

SENATOR JENSEN: They're recommendations from the Governor, and normally, yes, they are advanced.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And the attitude seems to be each person can choose his or her poison, so to speak, as far as those who are to be nominated for these positions?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: More or less, is that correct?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is it clear to you, from what I've said, that my red vote is not against these men because I deem them to be unqualified?
