considering what's going to be involved with making the determination as to whether people will be allowed to carry concealed weapons into their businesses. Some folks have said, well, look at all the bank robberies and just think if we allowed people to carry concealed weapons, that would have deterred a lot of those bank robberies. I will tell you this, there's not one bank in this state, much less this country, that wants people to be able to carry concealed weapons into their bank lobby. I would yield the rest of my time back to the Chair at this point.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Kiel. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Government Committee reports LB 433, LB 457, LB 695 to General File, and LB 230, and LB 499 to General File with amendments. The last bill read on Final Reading this morning (re LB 72) was presented to the Governor, Mr. President. Amendments by Senator Wehrbein to LB 179; and Senator Thompson to LB 476. That's all that I have. (See pages 1222-1223 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Senator Tyson, you're recognized to speak on the Chambers amendment. Senator Tyson waives off. Seeing no further speakers, Senator Chambers, to close on your amendment. Senator Chambers, to close on your amendment. Senator Chambers, you're recognized to close on your amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, I thought somebody else had their light on to speak, so I was doing a little research downstairs. But I will try to collect myself enough to become aware of what it is we're talking about. Is Senator Janssen there? Senator Janssen, I'd like to ask you a question.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Janssen, would you yield?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What increase in this fee would you agree to?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Oh, let's see, Senator Chambers, about $10.
