question.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Baker.

SENATOR BAKER: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Baker, have you ever, and I characterized the Carrier Enforcement officer, so none of my characterizations should be attributed to you. Have you observed any of the people who function as Carrier Enforcement officers?

SENATOR BAKER: Yes, I have.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How do they wear their uniform? Could you describe it for me and the members of the Legislature?

SENATOR BAKER: Well, they have a little different uniform than the State Patrol, I believe they're khaki's, but I can't recall any of them with pants tucked inside their boots, to be honest with you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. What kind of a cap do they wear or hat?

SENATOR BAKER: Baseball cap, type cap.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Baseball cap?

SENATOR BAKER: The ones that I'm familiar with do, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And they carry sidearms?

SENATOR BAKER: Yes, they do.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Isn't that kind of a ridiculous mixture?

SENATOR BAKER: That's your judgment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'm just asking for your opinion.

SENATOR BAKER: Yes, I would say so.
