way to get it back on the agenda should there be a feeling in the body that we should consider it further, a bracket to unmo...a motion to unbracket would be available, is that true?

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Why, it would be highly unusual.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, you said it (laughing). Is...would such a thing be available?

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Well, Senator, you're asking my...you're asking my opinion on a rule that I haven't reviewed.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All right.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: I have given you my off the cuff opinion.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: I could be a wrong as the world is. I would always take it, and if you give me five minutes to read the rule book, but that probably doesn't help you in your closing.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, and that's fair enough, Mr. Speaker, you handled it the way I would, and I was unsure on these things. That's why I wanted to get somebody else implicated. No matter what the rules are, there would be a way to get it back on the agenda, but I would hope that does not happen. I don't want there to be any misperception about what my intentions are. My intentions are to prevent a bill, such as this, from becoming law. I am absolutely convinced that with the blundering and stumbling, not just by the state, but even in some counties, trying to get various...

SENATOR COORDSEN: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...computer systems up and running, I wouldn't have confidence that this system is going to improve the present system so that women will get this support more certainly than they are now. I hope that this bracket motion is adopted. Furthermore, the county attorneys are the ones that I'm hearing from saying this bill is not good, this bill is not
