to be short-lived, from what I see happening with the State Board of Education, and other things. And when those religious people get back in control, we're going to see, scattered all around this city and others, those stakes that rise from the ground...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and they'll have stacks of wood around them. And when people have misbehaved by holding the wrong opinion or expressing the wrong idea, they'll be fastened to that stake. And to the cheering and praise of the Lord by those who participate, that person will be cooked alive for the greater glory of God and the uplift of society and the teaching of our children. I want to watch and see how my colleagues vote on this bill today.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Dwite Pedersen requested a machine...

SENATOR LANDIS: (Microphone not activated. Senator Landis moved for a call of the house.)

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: The question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye; those opposed nay. Please record.

CLERK: 18 ayes, 0 nays to place the house under call.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: The house is under call. Would unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. Would those members not excused please return to the Chamber and record your presence.
