

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

February 10, 2000 LB 55, 151

We have two members of the Commission on Industrial Relation (sic--Relations) to report to the floor this morning, Mr. Pete Burger from...from McCook, and Mr. William Blake from Lincoln. Both of these are attorneys. They're new appointments to the Commission on Industrial Relations. Both of them appeared before our committee and gave us a rundown about themselves, answered a few questions. And Mr. Burger graduated from Doane College and got his J.D. from Creighton University. Mr. Blake graduated from Graceland College in Lamoni, Iowa, and got his J.D. from University of Nebraska at Lincoln. I'd ask that you vote favorably for the confirmation of these two individuals. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Vrtiska. Discussion on the confirmation report? Senator Vrtiska, you're recognized to close. Senator Vrtiska waives closing. The question is the adoption of the confirmation report of the Business and Labor Committee found on Journal page 580. Those in favor vote aye, those opposed nay. Mr. Clerk, please record.
