call them honorific, I call them "horrific", titles is not put before the name, at least accord the individual a last name. I'm aware that as they go down into the text of the paragraph, Senator Peterson, former Senator Peterson is referred to as "Chris", but Dr. Lazure retains her doctor title. Ella is "Ella" throughout; Ms. Moore is referred to as "Kathy" once. It would be so much easier to just observe...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...the traditional courtesies when these types of presentations are made. So having injected my usual bit of let's put our feet on the ground, in spite of how unpleasant that may be, I will once again say that I am very pleased that I can vote aye on every one of these recommendations, and I applaud Senator Jensen for arranging to bring us four...bringing us four women this morning. Oh, let me finish. This is...oh, my time is up? By the way, Senator Jensen, do you know that a man is allowed to have 16 wives in this country? Four better, four worse, four richer, four poorer,...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...four times four is 16. (Laugh)

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: Mr. President, I have a request from Senator Wickersham to divide the confirmation report.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Wickersham, how would you propose the division?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Mr. Speaker, I would propose that a division consist of the nomination of the Policy Secretary for Health and Human Services System, Chris Peterson, that that be one division, and that the other three nominees be the second division.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Chair will find that it is divisible in that manner. Senator Jensen, it is your choice as to take up
