

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

March 15, 2000 LB 968, 1048

and within counties. I've noted that if you have recapture, if you sold the property and it is subject to recapture, that there is interest. That interest runs at 6 percent by statute now. We are asking you to provide that that 6 percent interest rate, which is lower than the normal rate on delinquent taxes, only run for 60 days after the recapture event occurs and that then it go to 14 percent. I think those are the material changes that would be affecting greenbelt. We do have provisions in the bill that are generated as a result of LB 1048. LB 1048 had, as its subject matter, the installment payment of property taxes. LB 1048, as it originally was introduced, had a system for mandatory provisions requiring county assessors to set up a structure to receive partial...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...payments of property taxes. The suggestions that we have in the bill for you set up a structure where they can voluntarily receive installment payments of taxes, place those into an escrow account, and then use the proceeds in the escrow account to pay taxes. We're also making provisions...changes in provisions with regard to mobile homes, stating that the delinquent taxes on mobile homes are to be collected in the same way as taxes on personal property. And there's a provision that allows for the striking of those taxes from the tax rolls after two years if the assessor has...if the treasurers use due diligence in trying to collect them. With that, Mr. President or Mr. Speaker, I'm sorry, I would be happy to try to respond to questions. I hope I haven't left anything substantive out.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Debate on the committee amendments, Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the body. I'd like to ask Senator Wickersham a couple questions. The first one is not too critical but I noticed you delayed the implementation date a year.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: For which?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: The implementation date was changed for, I