March 13, 2001 LB 114

execute them, give them life sentences, give them harsh punishment, take their license, put them in jail for not...for driving without a license. Then adults say, well, the young people are smart so we're going to accept what they tell us to do. That will not wash with me. Senator...well, "Baron" Tyson told me a joke the other day. This man was in a field beating his mule with a whip, and a guy drove up and saw it happening. The guy felt he was the best mule trainer in the world, and in great indignation, he jumped out of his car and leaped over the fence and ran up to the man beating the mule, snatched the whip, threw it away and said, you're using cruelty on this mule. You can train a mule through kindness. And the man said, what do you mean, kindness? The man said, the one who got out of the car said, turn it over to me and I will show you how to train a mule with kindness. So the mule owner said, okay, the mule is in your hands. Now if this is a lie, Senator Tyson told it first. The man went back to his car, opened the trunk and there was a 2x4 that had been soaking in motor oil for three months or longer, that makes that wood very hard. He got that 2x4 and came and stood in front of that mule and took that 2x4 and cracked him, right down the middle of his face. And the other guy said, well, you told me you used kindness to train a mule, and the man said, but you first got to get his attention. Brothers and sisters, the other day, the last few days I've been talking on this bill, nobody much had anything to say. I've got the mule's attention now, and if I did not fight these bills like I do...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ..."Parson" Kruse, if I didn't stay on these things day after day, we wouldn't even be at the level of discussion we are having now. I know my colleagues. It takes a long time to get their attention and I will take that time, but I have something that I'm going to read from my article, or I'll quote it. People said they want to take time. Here's what it says: We will spend more time on it, said Chambers. I don't want anybody coming to me, as we come to crunch time, saying, would you lighten up? The time to have me lighten up was yesterday and the day before when I was offering amendments. Lighten up time is passed. You all are going to have to get a
