FLOOR DEBATE

March 28, 2001 LB 215

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, I'm looking at sections...

SENATOR LANDIS: Ah! Oh, I see, it's published in a different way in mine, so, okay, go ahead.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, Section 76-2,120, subsection (10).

SENATOR LANDIS: Go ahead, Senator Beutler. I think I've got it. Senator Bromm has handed me a piece of paper that looks like it might be the same thing we're talking about.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR LANDIS: Third party relocation company, is that the first section?

SENATOR BEUTLER: No, it starts out a person licensed as a salesperson or broker pursuant to the Nebraska Real Estate License Act.

SENATOR LANDIS: Okay.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Are you there?

SENATOR LANDIS: I do see it now.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, shall not be required to verify the accuracy or completeness of any disclosure statement. All right?

SENATOR LANDIS: Um-hum.

SENATOR BEUTLER: And then it says, and the only obligation, the only obligation of a buyer's agent pursuant to this section is to assure that a copy of the statement is delivered, dah, dah, dah, in accordance with the rules. I need to be refreshed as to what the law is. Does...does not this agent, for example, have an obligation under current law, if he knows that something on the statement is inaccurate, to inform the buyer that it is, in fact, inaccurate?
