FLOOR DEBATE

May 14, 2001

LB 852

If another proposal were to surface which kept your district intact and another area of the state was marked for giving up a district instead of your area of the state falling prey again, would you support a plan such as that?

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: Well, at the risk of making other people unhappy, it would only be to the best interest of my constituents I suppose to support any other plan.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And, Senator Cunningham, when God was talking to Satan and they were having fun with poor Job who didn't know he was the subject of that discussion, Satan told God, skin for skin, all that a man hath will he give for his life signaling how strong is the desire for self-preservation. Would anybody who is reasonable think it is strange that you would want to save your district?

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: No, I don't think so. I think that I need to do everything I can to save my district.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would you want me to help you in any way that I could?

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: Well, that's why I said I was going to talk for 24 hours earlier, 8 hours on all three stages until somebody came up with a plan.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If you and I are seeing eye to eye, we only have to get 23 more, right?

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: That would be correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think that's possible?

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: I'm not sure what you have in mind, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. I'd like to ask Senator Dierks a question.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Dierks, would you yield?
