LB 851

Alabama, and Tom Sorley had started. Tom Sorley, goes down, turns out his shoulder, reinjured his shoulder, but here's Dr. Osborne, putting in Randy Garcia again, who had just lost us the Washington State game, and Warren Powers, by the way was head coach at the time of Washington State. And everyone was upset at Osborne. Everyone was saying, what is he thinking, what is this coach all about? Why is he doing this? And here we are, it almost brings me back to 1977. Norfolk's economic survival will be in peril if Tom Osborne becomes its Congressman. And I'm getting that from these stack of letters that I've received from Norfolk. Let me read this one here, and I won't read the names of the businesses. It says the economic survival of Norfolk depends on Doug Bereuter, and it would be in peril if Tom Osborne's the Congressman. Here's one, I think this is a quasi-governmental entity, so I'll call it the...I'll name this one the Norfolk Action Council, talked about the industrial I-80 regions and so forth, and said this is one of the reasons why we need to stay in the 1st Congressional District, and not the 3rd. Well, the little map that they gave us, and you may remember this letter, has blue shaded on these counties, of which one of them is Madison, but look at this, Pierce County goes to the 3rd, Platte County, Polk, Saline, Jefferson and Gage. I guess all those counties are destined for economic disaster. But...so you have to wonder about that one. This one says that Congressman Bereuter is very much in support of a highway. Well, I'm not a Congressman, I'm not even from Norfolk, but I know, from these letters, that the people of Norfolk want that highway. Now if I can grasp this concept, being a lowly State Senator, and being from far away from Norfolk, in South Omaha, I'm sure Congressman Osborne could appreciate the fact that the people of Norfolk want the highway. Congressman Bereuter's representation is essential to the project, as if Congressman Osborne would some how be deficient. Congressman Bereuter has been helpful. Well I don't know Congressman Osborne personally, but from all accounts that I've read about, he seems to be a good man, and tries to be helpful. So I'm very confident that Tom Osborne could be helpful as well. I believe, I don't have the number, but I believe in the Congressional budget, or the budget, the United States Budget that was approved by the House, or that...the one that they're have put together, Congressman Osborne is ineffective and
