parts of the puzzle. The Executive Board has the responsibility of looking after the employees of the council, along with myriad other things. And I think that when we look at issues such as reflected in AM2141,...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR COORDSEN: ...we need to keep in mind that for the most part we are talking about employees in a job situation that is unlike almost all other employments. We...in order to keep the quality of people we have, and the quality people we need to attract, we need to ensure that we're not only comparable with stable employment, but that we do pay hazardous duty benefits, hazardous duty pay, because the jobs are in fact hazardous duty when you are employed in an at-will situation. Most of the employees do not have recourse to many of the...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR COORDSEN: ...employment benefits that other employment exists. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Coordsen. Senator Wickersham, on the Bruning amendment to AM2141.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: I'm going to...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Wickersham, did you waive off?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Connealy. Senator Connealy, your light is next for discussion of Bruning amendment to the Chambers amendment.

SENATOR CONNEALY: (Microphone malfunction) ...President. Senator Chambers pretty well laid out how we got to this point with this bill per se. It's...and I rise in support of the Chambers amendment. It's difficult to take the contents of your priority bill and give them away. I...sometimes you have to do those kind of things. Sometimes you have to do the right thing
