the state for treatment and rehabilitation for those youth committed to YRTC-Kearney. Together we have made progress in reforming our state's juvenile justice system and this year we need to take another step forward. Over the past three years, I have traveled to all 93 counties at least twice to meet with Nebraskans in their communities, to listen to their concerns, and to work with them to solve the challenges that they face, and to celebrate their successes with them. I can tell you that the spirit of Nebraskans is alive. Nebraskans do believe that the best days are ahead of us and I share their optimism and their confidence about our future. Working together, we can continue to make Nebraska, already a great state, even better. Thank you. God bless you. God bless Nebraska. God bless America. (Applause)
