FLOOR DEBATE

February 19, 2002 LR 6

will vote on casino gambling or not. This is a question of whether the Legislature will place in front of people an alternative that makes more sense than what they are being offered by the other two initiatives that are out there. There are other things about this...these initiatives that I think are undesirable. The one I was just talking about, for example, provides for no funding for gambler rehabilitation. Provides no funding at all for that purpose. So the state, then, would be called upon to cough up additional funds, or to continue, actually, to...to cough up funds for that purpose without being able to apply any of the proceeds to that end. Because the proceeds are provided for...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...other purposes. And another thing about the initiative, this particular one, is that it allows every community to go its own separate way and do something separate and different, regulated to some extent, in different ways. Why would you want to take...if you were antigambling, why would you want to encourage, by providing people with no other alternative to vote on, why would you want to encourage a proposition that tended to allow gambling to spin out of control? Why would you not want to put something before the people that is in your considered judgement a limited form, a structured form, a form in good public policy, insofar as you can have that once you've accepted the philosophic fact that there is this gambling, why would you not want to do that? To me, as much as I adhere to the...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Time.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...basic underlying...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Jones.

SENATOR JONES: Mr. President and members of the body, first I want to stand up and oppose this. I'll be voting against this, but I wanted to give you some of the reasons why. I'm thinking clear back when I first come in, the first day of the session. I came in here, well, there's a bill come to us right away that
