FLOOR DEBATE

February 22, 2002 LB 824

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And, Senator Brashear,...

SENATOR BRASHEAR: ...Mr. Speaker.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...if I asked you this question already, you can just tell me. You do not see the need to amend this bill in any way to deal with the issues that I've raised, is that correct?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: With all due respect, Senator Chambers, I do not.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Are you a cosponsor of the bill?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: I don't think I ever became one. No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, okay. I'd like to ask Senator Foley a question, as the primary sponsor.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Foley, after listening to all of the debate and all of the questions and considering any and all issues that anybody raised, you feel that the form of the bill is such that no amending is necessary to protect it from a successful constitutional challenge?

SENATOR FOLEY: That is correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, thank you. Members of the Legislature, if there are no other lights...I'm asking the Chair if that's the case?

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: There is one other light,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Beutler...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and I'm going to leave that motion up there so whoever wants to make a comment can do so, and we will
