bark. When he says bite, I'm supposed to bite. When he says fight, I'm supposed to fight. When he says die, I'm supposed to die. When he says kill, I'm supposed to kill. And he tells me whom to bark at, whom to bite, whom to fight, and whom to kill.

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And when I say I am tired and I will not fight for you, I will not die for you, but I'll fight for me and my own and I'll die for me and my own, then suddenly I become a monster. We need a system whereby every representative body in this country can have a person such as myself to remind you all of the realities of this country.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Chambers, you may continue, your light is next, if you wish to.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President, and I certainly wish to and intend to. These opportunities don't often present themselves, but I'm going to take advantage of every one when it does. I watch what's happening in Palestine. As long as the Israelis were killing Palestinians it was not called violence. Little boys would be at school. A man named Seymour Hersh, who is not a Palestinian, wrote about it and others did the same. These kids would get out of school. There's a fence that walled off the school area and the Israelis would come in their Jeeps and their tanks and park outside the school and shout insults at the Palestinian kids, and when the boys came out and threw rocks at machine gun...at machine guns mounted on Jeeps and tanks, the Israelis would kill the school boys, unarmed children, and that was not called violence. Then they would take their tanks and bulldozers and destroy people's houses, killing women and children, and that was not called violence because America is dragged in tow by Israel, because Jews contribute a lot of money to politicians and Congress and that's why so much money is given to Israel and everything Israel does is considered all right. And the Palestinians are not crazy. They see what is happening. Our women are dying. Our children are being shot down at school. America has given the Israelis F-16 fighter jets. They have Mirage bombers, they have missiles, they have rockets, they have tanks and they bring these against us, who
